

Welcome to 2012

As people are recovering from the busyness of Christmas and their summer holidays we start to look at all the back to school ads that are inviting us to buy our pens, pencils and notebooks from their store. This signals the beginning of a whole new year of study. And study is not just for children. This year many people will start, or continue, their ministry studies. This may be in a Certificate III of Prayer Ministry through to a Masters of Divinity. At the beginning of this academic calendar why not invite those you know who are studying to contact The Annabel Charitable Foundation to see how we can support them while they are studying. This year, if you are supporting someone financially who is studying in order to spread the gospel of Jesus, why not connect with The Annabel Charitable Foundation in order to maximise your donation through tax deductible means.

Why do we do this? Because at the end of study, people like Bob Slockee who was supported financially while he completed his studies with the Church Army is now out in the field working with people who desperately need to know Jesus. He has now been selected for leadership at Airs, near Campbelltown with the Church Army. His desire is that each and every person he comes into contact with will have profound encounters with Jesus. Through the steep learning curve of being in the field after his training Bob has learnt that failure isn't in the mistake but in not continuing with Him (Jesus) in the endeavours that He has planned for each one of us to grow with Him. We wish him well as he steps into this leadership role. How exciting to know that The Annabel Charitable Foundation has contributed to the evangelical work that is now being done in Airs through supporting a student financially.

You too can contribute and we invite you to consider The Annabel Charitable Foundation to be a recipient of your generosity when you are working out your giving for this year. Click here to make a tax deductible donation now.

Join the ACF cause on Facebook and invite your friends to join. This will alert those who are studying for ministry causes that scholarships are available through the ACF, and that donations are tax deductible for supporters. Just click on the Facebook icon to see our Causes page.
