

Christmas Greetings from the Board and Scholarship Committee of the Annabel Charitable Foundation Ltd

This newsletter highlights the rich diversity with which the Annabel Charitable Foundation Ltd (The ACF) has been working throughout 2010, and to report how your donations are furthering the work of God's kingdom, incorporating a wide range of students, locations and Christian training organisations.

Assisting Students:

Scholarships have been awarded in 2010 to men and women who are currently studying to enhance their ministry skills with a view to Christian ministry based employment, and also to those who have subsequently graduated since receiving their scholarship, and are now working in Christian ministry. These recipients represent a very broad cross section of ministries including:

- A student now ordained and working as a Parish minister in the Illawarra area
- A full time student who is working towards Chaplaincy in the Australian Defence Force
- Indigenous students working within their community
- A student who has graduated and is now working in drug and alcohol rehabilitation programmes
- Students training for work at an orphanage in China.

Serving Communities:

The ACF's Scholarships have been awarded to students either studying, or now working, in the following areas:

- Toowoomba QLD
- Sydney NSW
- The Wollongong Region NSW
- Canberra ACT
- Airds/Campbelltown NSW

Partnering With Christian Training Organisations:

The ACF has established partnerships with a diverse range of Christian training institutions during 2010, some of which include:

- CALAM Training Centre
- Elijah House Ministries Australia
- The Church Army
- Moore College
- Ganggalah Indigenous Training Centre
- Rhema Bible College

Share In Our Vision For The Future:

As we enter 2011 the ACF's Scholarship Committee encourages applications from students undertaking ministry training. For further information click here. The ACF Board encourages training institutions to contact us to form strategic alliances to further the spread of the Gospel, through financial support of their students.

In the New Year we will bring details of further exciting ways to partner with students, through prayer and letter writing which supplements existing tax deductible donations assisting students with their financial needs.

Your church may already be supporting a student who is training for ministry, and if so we encourage you to contact The ACF's Development Manager Wendy Konemann to gain details of how The ACF can work with the members of your church to maximise your investment in this training.

The ACF is excited about the opportunities 2011 will bring. We encourage you to partner with us by contacting Wendy Konemann who will assist you to make your tax deductible donation.

Exciting ACF news:

The ACF is now on Facebook. Join our cause and invite your friends to join The ACF, thereby creating a snowball to avalanche of support for Christian Ministry. Check us out by clicking on the Facebook icon.
