

We hope you have had a lovely Easter reflecting on God's saving grace for each one of us. The Easter season reminds us that the story of Jesus, his death and resurrection and the resulting free gift of eternal salvation is vital and needs to be communicated to all the world. We'd like to introduce you to our most recent scholarship recipient:

Keiran Sampson

Keiran is currently halfway through his studies as an Aircraft Mechanical Engineer, having completed one year of Bible College and one year of full time theory of Engineering. With this subject completed he will now complete his Diploma of Mission Aviation - Flight. Keiran is studying at the Australian Centre for Mission Aviation to equip him to fulfil his long held dream of working as a missionary overseas with aviation. Mission aviation reaches into the most remote parts of the world and is used for a variety of roles within Christian mission

Australian Centre for Mission Aviation

ACMA - The Australian Centre for Mission Aviation is the latest training institution to see the benefits of recommending their supporters utilise the the Annabel Charitable Foundation to maximise tax benefits to their donors. ACMA is an interdenominational, evangelical organisation committed to providing top quality Mission Aviation pilots and engineers to the mission field. ACMA provides training in engineering via a Diploma of Aeroskills comprising:

- Cert IV in Ministries
- Cert IV in Aeroskills (Mechanical)

ACMA also provide courses resulting in pilot certification with Australia's CASA (Civil Aviation Safety Authority).

For more information about the wonderful training being provided at ACMA please check out their website here
